Maya's New Backpack

Maya was excited to start the new school year. She was excited to see her friends again and to meet her new teacher. She was most excited about using her new backpack. She sat down on the floor with all of her new school supplies and her bright pink backpack.

First, Maya put her crayons in the backpack. She would use the crayons to draw pictures for her new teacher, Mrs. Smith. Next, she put her scissors in the backpack. She could use the scissors to cut out greeting cards for her best friend. Next, Maya put in her new princess pencils. She thought of all the stories she would write with them. Finally, Maya put a bottle of glitter glue in her backpack. It would make everything she made sparkle.

When she had everything put in its place, Maya carefully zipped up the backpack and put it next to the door. She smiled as she thought of what a great year it would be.

Woodpecker

A woodpecker is a kind of bird. Woodpeckers are found all over the world except in the North and South poles, Australia, and Newzealand . There are over 200 different kinds of woodpeckers. The two largest woodpeckers, the imperial woodpecker and the ivory - billed woodpecker are most likely extinct. Animals that are extinct are no longer found on Earth.

Woodpeckers have sharp bills for drilling into wood and short stiff tails which help prop them up against tree trunks and branches. Woodpeckers also have very long tongue, which helps them get at insects deep within trees. Woodpeckers are often heard drumming loudly on trees before they are seen. Woodpeckers can even become pests if they learn to drum on siding of a house.

Woodpeckers can easily be attracted to backyard bird feeders with sunflower seeds or suet. Suet is a kind of animal fat that is very tasty to woodpeckers and other birds.
